THE BALTIMORE STEAMERS.—The steamship Sea cult, Captain Durros, arrived at this port on Saturday evening last, having made the voyage out and back, with full cargoes both ways, in eight days. Every effort is being made to meet the want of the business community of both cities, and w are sure such dispatch will satisfy shippers of this The fine steamship Falcon, Captain REED, had a

There seems to be so much uncertainty entertained as to the final summing up of the packing of the West and Northwest, that operators throughout the country feel indisposed to overload themselves with stock, and consequently purchasing gradually and cautiously as their most immediate demands require. We see no reason to change our previously expressed opinion that the final summing up will show an increase over last year (taking the increase of weight in consideration) of 900,000 to 1,000,000 head. Whether the increased consumption of the country and the commaratively Lies Insurance.—Although our papers are eeming with advertisements, &c., of Life Insur-ince Companys we do not wish the public to forget that the Southern Life of Memphis is still in midst and doing a good business. Whether the increased consumption of the country and the comparatively low prices now current will be sufficient to nullify this large increase is a matter for the fature to determine. Thus far the consumptive demand has been most healthy, particularly for cut meats; but most of the large dealers, having purchased freely before the recent advance in prices, may be supposed to be fully supplied, and being enabled to sell to their customers at lower prices than other houses can who were not so fortunate, may feel disposed to allow the market to take its course, and not to care to make new purchases till their stocks become materially reduced. Should such be the ease the market for the next two or three months will be dull, dragging and unsatisfactory. Speculators hold aloof from barreled meats, believing that the stock is in excess. There seems more disposition to operate for England, but the sufferers by last year's shipments will only operate cautiously; and, indeed, the accounts from the cutpily of hoge continues liberal, and we hear nothing to indicate that our packing must cease for the want of hoge, for some weeks. ance "to look before they leap," and have a tall Charleston Bank, before they commit themselves. Lieutoanth HERDRICKS, being notified of the fact, put the case in Officer Graffair's hands, who soon succeeded in arresting the parties. It appeared that one of the thieves had concealed hirself in the store and opened it to his conferes about the middle of the night, and the robbery was then casy. One of the robbers was acaptured by the up town police, and the romaining three were arrested by Officer Graffair. The goods have been mostly recovered, and the robbers will have a chance of ornamenting the next Court of Sessions.

Mayor's Court, February 23.—Henry Sanders, colored commission merchant, who makes the selfing of fish a speciality, and who had eighteen strings in his tray and a permit allowing the sale of only feer, was fined $5, and the fish were sent to the Orphan House.

A man, who attempted to lodge at a residence where he didn't board, was furnished with a board in the Guard House till morning, and was allowed on leaving to deposit a $5 groon-back for the benefit of the city.

A rusty toloking man and a female in a state of decay, were separately brought up for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, and were each fined $5, which they will probably take out by spending a few days at the "Station," and observing the internal economy of that much frequented establishment.

Poixe.—The neat appearance presented by the police yesterday made them objects of general interest. At an inspection held at 7 A.M.-by the Captain, at the Lower Grand House, the soldierly look and deportment of the men attracted considerable attention. The new uniforms are not showy, but are just what was wanted to give the corps a dressy look. A double-breagted frock coat of the world. The Great Eastern and the contract of the city under the contract of the contract boast of a police force in a better state of organization, or who are more perfect in every detail and the new uniform will serve to keep alive that espril de corps that is so necessary to the exist-ence of such bodies. The Bells.—Yesterday was emphatically a quiet Sunday. Beyond the faint tipide of the Orphan House bell, not a sound could be heard, and those religiously inclined were puzzled to know at what time the services commenced. Even the sepul-chrainotes of St. Michael's solitary bell were hushchral notes of St. Michael's solitary bell were hush-ed, and the solemn stillness that pervaded every place was startling. Since the arrival of the Glad-stone, the workmen have been busily engaged in removing the old timbers from the baltry and pre-paring the way for the erection of those brought over from England. It was supposed that the old timbers would answer all the purposes required, but on examination they were found to be affected by the dry rot, and it became necessary to substiby the dry rot, and it became necessary to substitute those furnished. In order to acco the pell was propped up, and its sound cassed for a few days. The Vestry are making strenuous efforts to obtain possession of the bells, and have already, by paying a portion of the dues, secured two, the largest and one of the smaller ones. These will be put in position in a few days, and the public can then judge of their tones, and ascertain if they have lost any of the sweetness that formerly char-

COTTON STEALING.—This crime has been on the increase lately, and we have been called upon to chronicle several cases of this description temptations offered are innumerable, and if it was not for the efficacy of the police force, cotton thefts would be far more frequent. The wharves and railroad yards suffer the most from these depredstions, and it requires the greatest vigilance of the watchmen to prevent their occurrence.

On February 5th a bale of cotton was stolen from the Northeastern Railroad Depot, and the case being turned over to the detectives, Officer Chapman succeeded in ferretting out the matter, to have been the thieves. The bale of cotton, weighing 310 pounds, was sold to a junk shop for $15.

On Saturday a raid was made upon some Sea Isaand cotton that had been turned out on Accommodation Wharf, and one hale was sequestered. The regular draymen employed by the Wharf had just left with a load, and an enterprising darkey, who had been watching his chance, dashed in and succeeded in snatching a bale without notice. The detectives being notified, soon discovered where the cotton had been housed, and the thief being well known his early arrest is certain. well known, his early arrest is certain

MISCELLANEOUS.

GENTLEMEN:—During a visit to the West, last fall, I contracted chills and fever, which brought me to my bed, and finally terminated in typhoid fever, and confined me to my room for several months, during which time I was physically so prestrated that I almost despaired of ever recovering my health; having almost entirely lost my appetite for days, not being able to eat a morsel, added to which I was distressed with a reeling sensation in my head, and pa.sel many sleepless nights—all from debility caused by my prostrate condition, brought about by fever. At this stage of my condition a friend recommended me to use your celebrated S-TOMACH BITTEES, but being morally opposed to the use of stimulants in mended me to use your celebrated STOMACH BITTERS, but being morally opposed to the use of stimulants in any form. I at first declined, but afterward yielded my prejudices, and, after taking the medicine for several weeks, my appetite returned, and with it I am rapidly regalining my former extength and vigor. My sleep (from the loss of which I have suffered much) has never better than it is now, and the reeling sensation (be-(from the loss of which I have suffered much) has never been better than it is now, and the recling sensation (before alluded to) has entirely left me. My bowels, which were much constipated and irragular, are now quite natural, and, in fact, I am glad to say that I feel myself a new man, and tender you this testimonial of my appreciation of your valuable preparation, in order that others, suffering as I have, may avail themselves of its virtues, which prejudice kept me from enjoying for so long a period. I may also add that my physician, after seeing the beneficial effect of your Bitters on me, recommended that I use them regularly.

Yours, very respectfully,
